

Louis J. Britton

Partner
Indianapolis
317-968-8120
lbritton@k-glaw.com

Practice Areas

- Construction
- Insurance Defense Litigation
- Corporate & Business Law
- Product Liability
- Professional Liability

Education

- Indiana University, 2004
- Indiana University School of Law-Indianapolis, 2008

Author & Speaker

- Presenter, IADC Professional Liability Roundtable, "When the Professional Becomes Part of the Story", 2023
- Presenter, Harmonie Transportation & Construction Seminar, "Impact of Third Party Litigation Finance", 2019
- Presenter, Harmonie Transportation & Construction Seminar, "Disputing Construction Defect Claims", 2019
- NBI, "Jury Selection and Jury Instructions in Federal Court"

Distinctions

- Super Lawyers, Rising Star, 2022

Involvement

Memberships

- Defense Research Institute (DRI)
- Defense Trial Counsel of Indiana (DTCI)
- Indiana State Bar Association (ISBA)
- Indianapolis Bar Association (IBA)
- Harmonie Next Generation Co-Chair, 2020-2022

Admissions

- Indiana, 2008
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of Indiana
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Indiana
- U.S. Court of Appeals, 7th Circuit

Biography

Lou Britton is an attorney in the Indianapolis office and is the chair of the Construction practice group. He is a member of several local legal organizations and focuses his practice in the areas of Construction, Corporate and Business litigation, Product Liability, Subrogation, Transportation, and General Insurance Defense matters. Knowing he wanted to be an attorney since he was a child, Lou has used this drive and passion in his practice as he continually helps clients navigate the complexities of litigation.