

Julia K. Kleinschmidt

Paralegal
Indianapolis
317-968-8171
jkleinschmidt@k-glaw.com

Biography

Julia Kleinschmidt is a paralegal in the Civil Tort Litigation Section at Kightlinger & Gray, LLP. Ms. Kleinschmidt's experience includes technical medical writing and translation of complex medical issues for legal professionals. Ms. Kleinschmidt assists attorneys in analyzing, interpreting and evaluation of medical information and significant case factors that impact the litigation process. Ms. Kleinschmidt has assisted with complex class action pharmaceutical defense actions, personal injury defense, and is involved in all phases of trial preparation. Ms. Kleinschmidt attended Butler University with focused majors in English and Zoology, later adding Paralegal and Legal Practice Management to her studies. Ms. Kleinschmidt obtained her National Federation of Paralegal Studies Certification in 2013.

Practice Areas

Education

- Butler University

Involvement

- Law Day Chair for Shortridge High School
- Past Chair Indianapolis Bar Association Paralegal Executive Council
- Former member of the Indiana State Bar Association and National Federal Paralegal Association

Admissions
