Biography

Carly Roseboom is an associate in Kightlinger & Gray's Indianapolis office. Carly focuses her practice in general civil litigation, including trucking and transportation, personal injury defense, and real estate. She has experience in handling different phases of litigation, from analyzing discovery, conducting and defending depositions, negotiating settlements in mediations, as well as bench trial experience and appellate briefing. Prior to Kightlinger & Gray, Carly worked in-house for a major insurance company defending personal injury and property damage claims. Outside of her practice, Carly enjoys spending time with her husband and two daughters, as well as curling up on the couch with a book or crochet hook.
