Biography

Cindra McClanahan has worked for Kightlinger & Gray since the opening of THE Merrillville office in 2012. She has worked as a litigation paralegal since 1995. She has experience in answering discovery, performing background investigations as well as preparing medical record summaries and medical specials itemizations. She also assists the attorneys as they prepare for expert record reviews, mediations, and trials. Cindra has an Associate's Degree in Legal Administration and began her career as a paralegal working in matters of insurance defense, medical malpractice and Workers Compensation cases. She actively supports our troops through the Indiana Patriot Guard and by making and sending care packages.
