Biography

Christopher Moon is an associate attorney practicing in Kightlinger & Gray's Indianapolis office. Being a born and bred Hoosier, Christopher attended the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University for his undergrad and stayed in Bloomington, IN to attend the Maurer School of Law. After becoming licensed, Christopher practiced multiple years in Fort Wayne, IN before joining the firm, focusing primarily in residential construction, civil litigation, commercial litigation, and general business and contract law. Christopher has since expanded his practice into areas such as insurance defense litigation, legal malpractice, product liability, and premises liability. Christopher is eager to continue growing in the field and serving the citizens of Indiana
