Biography

Tiffany is an attorney in the firm's Indianapolis office. She joined Kightlinger & Gray, LLP after nearly 3 years of experience as an Administrative Law Judge for the Department of Workforce Development, wherein she presided over matters of unemployment disputes. Prior to serving as an Administrative Law Judge, Tiffany represented plaintiffs in personal injury matters throughout the greater Indianapolis area. Tiffany is proficient in understanding the details and nuances of each matter's factual pattern and how that may affect the overall suit. This talent was naturally honed through her 7 years of paralegal and firm administrative experience prior to engaging in the practice of law. Tiffany understands and values being a confidant of her clients and carries with her the ultimate goal of providing the best service to her clients through all stages of a case. In her time away from litigation, Tiffany enjoys reading, watching sports, and spending time with her daughter, Payton, and their two Pomeranians, Prince and Peppy.
