Biography

A lifelong Hoosier, Craig grew up in Winslow, a small town in Southern Indiana. He attended Wabash College in Crawfordsville, where he majored in history. After graduating from the IU Robert H. McKinney School of Law, Craig has focused his entire 25+ year career on employment law, representing both employers and employees in various disputes. In addition to his extensive litigation experience, he has also successfully argued cases in both the 6th and 7th Circuit Courts of Appeal. In his personal life, Craig enjoys spending time with his wife, Karla, his two sons, and his dogs Jack and Sophie. He also enjoys cooking, gardening, and forever rebuilding his 1964 Jeep C-J-5.
